

Fact Sheet: Extended Belfast City Council Boundary

As part of local government reform Belfast will be assimilating parts of the adjacent Lisburn and Castlereagh areas, and a small portion of North Down.

There will be an anticipated 20% population increase from around 281,000 to 334,000¹

Extension into the West (and South)

LISBURN
CITY COUNCIL

What is this area? This is currently part of Lisburn City Council and is broadly made up of the following areas: Colin Glen, Derryaghy, Dunmurry, Kilwee, Lagmore, Seymour Hill, Twinbrook, and Poleglass.

At a glance: 27,000 population (22% of the current LCC population) 2,712 acres (2.5% of their existing area)

Geographical coverage: The area extends from Colin Glen in the north to Lagmore in the west, down to Twinbrook in the south, and through to where Dunmurry meets the M1 Motorway in the east. It covers a region of approximately 4.2 square miles and includes Edenderry.

2011 Census highlights

Households: 9,417

Industry: Of the 10,329 residents in employment in the area just over half work in wholesale/ retail (19%), health (17%), education (11%) and public administration (9%).

Economic Activity: Of the 18,729 usual residents aged 16 to 74 years, 63% (11,745) are classified as economically active, with 7% (1,211) unemployed. 37% are classified as economically inactive.

Other Data

Businesses: 379 identified through postcode data (incorporating parts of BT10, BT17, and BT28).

Assets: 16 sites have been identified. These include land and property assets such as –

- Playing fields and open spaces (7 pitches, 3 MUGAs, 4 parks, and 8 playgrounds)
- 4 Buildings (1 activity centre and 3 pavilions)

Extension into the East

What is this area? This is currently part of Castlereagh Borough Council and will take from the following areas: Ballyhanwood, Beechill, Belvoir, Cregagh, Downshire, Drumbo, Galwally, Gilnahirk, Glencregagh, Hillfoot, Lisnasharragh, Lower Braniel, Merok, Minnowburn, Newtownbreda, Tullycarnet, Upper Braniel, and Wynchurch.

At a glance: 26,000 population (38% of the current CBC population) 2,855 acres (13.6% of existing area)

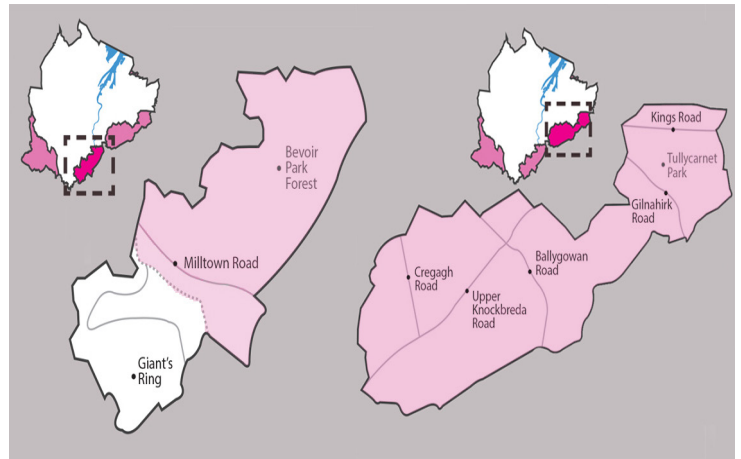

Geographical coverage: This area is illustrated in two parts. The southern area extends from the Milltown Road to Newtownbreda. The eastern area extends along the Glencregagh, Manse and Middle Braniel roads, and up to Gilnahirk and Tullycarnet. Together these parts cover a region of approximately 4.5 square miles.

2011 Census highlights

Households: 11,391

Industry: Of the 11,594 residents in employment in the area approximately half work in wholesale/ retail (17%), health (15%), public administration (11%) and education (10%).

Economic Activity: Of the 18,356 usual residents aged 16 to 74 years, 68% (12,396) are classified as economically active, with 4% (697) unemployed. 33% are classified as economically inactive.

CASTLEREAGH BOROUGH COUNCIL

Other Data

Businesses: 443 identified through postcode data (incorporating parts of BT5, BT6, BT8, and BT16).

Assets: 33 sites have been identified. These include land and property assets such as –

- Parks and open spaces (10 council pitches, 1 MUGA, 6 parks, 7 playgrounds, allotments, 1 cemetery, 2 bowling greens and 1 BMX track)
- 21 Buildings (including 1 leisure centre, 1 activity centre, 6 community centres/ halls, and 4 pavilions)

Extension into North East

What is this area?

This is a small area (less than 0.1 square miles) which is currently part of North Down Borough Council. It falls within the Loughview Super Output Area (SOA), and comprises of Cedar Grove, close to Knocknagoney (BT18 postcode).

At a glance:

The area has a population of 343, and contains 164 households. Postcode data indicates that there are 3 businesses in this area.

¹ Population figures extracted from NISRA Census 2011. Revised figures (November 2013) provide a more accurate indication; however remain subject to change. Any differences from previous estimates are based on a revision to the proxy Small Area composition.