

Appendix 2: Programme CIVINET Conference

Supported by

On the move - A conference about cycling and connectivity

Hosted by CIVINET UK & Ireland and Belfast City Council

10am – 16.15pm Thursday 30 April 2015

Reception Room, City Hall, Belfast

Chair – Chris Hadfield, Lancashire County Council

Programme
10.00-10.25	Registration, networking and coffee
10.25-10.30	Welcome	Chris Hadfield Project Manager, Lancashire County Council, and National Network Manager, CIVINET
10.30-10.50	A new Bicycle Strategy for Northern Ireland	Andrew Grieve Head of Cycling Unit, Department for Regional Development
10.50-11.00	Spotlight on bike hire schemes : Launching a new bike sharing scheme in Belfast	Anne Doherty Belfast Public Bike Share, Belfast City Council
11.00-11.10	One year on: nextbike in Bath and North East Somerset	Colin Rees LSTF Project Manager Bath & North East Somerset Council
11.10-11.20	An established scheme: dublinbikes	Damien Ó Tuama Mobilities Consultant and BYPAD Bicycle Policy Auditor
11.20-11.40	Coffee break
11.40-12.10	Discussion and Q&A on morning session	With all four speakers. Chaired by Chris Hadfield, Lancashire County Council
12.10-13.00	Cycle tour (alternative - tour of City Hall)	Open to all delegates. Led by Belfast City Council.

13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-14.30	Regeneration and connectivity	Dr Brendan Murtagh Reader in Urban Planning, Queen's University Belfast and Gerry Millar Director of Property and Projects, Belfast City Council
14.30-14.45	An introduction to CIVINET	Chris Hadfield Project Manager, Lancashire County Council, and National Network Manager, CIVINET
14.45-15.05	EU funding sources for cycling projects	Fiona McLean European Project Development Manager Transport & Travel Research Ltd
15.05-15.20	Coffee break
15.20-15.40	Ghent ... making cycling the new normal	Patty Delanghe Leader of Cycling Team, City of Ghent
15.40-16.10	Discussion and Q&A on afternoon session	With all five speakers Chaired by Chris Hadfield
16.10-16.15	Conclusion	Chris Hadfield, Lancashire County Council