

Appendix 1- Belfast Home Safety and Repair Service Project Evaluation

90% of respondents noted a good to substantial positive impact on their personal life

95% of respondents noted a good to substantial difference made to the confidence and independence in and around their home.

91% of respondents noted that the service had a good to substantially positive increase in their level of happiness

91% of respondents noted a good to substantial difference made to how safe and secure they feel in their home.