3.0	Main report
	Key Issues
3.1	At the meeting of the Council on 1st November, the following motion, which was proposed by Councillor O'Neill and seconded by the Councillor Nic Biorna was, in accordance with Standing Order 13(f), referred to the Committee for consideration:

“This Council supports the ‘On the Ball’ campaign, the aim of which is to provide free sanitary products in as many sporting grounds and public buildings as possible to combat the ever growing issue of period poverty.

As an initial step, the Council will examine the feasibility of providing these products in the City Hall, in all Council offices, and, in keeping with the ‘On The Ball’ campaign, also look at the feasibility of providing free sanitary products in our sporting and leisure facilities.

It should be the norm in schools, universities colleges, workplaces, football grounds, concert venues for free access to sanitary product provision to help combat the ever growing issue of period poverty.”
